LOS ANGELES, CA – W2W Records girl group BelleVoxx release their second single off their anticipated debut full-length slated for release in March. The ballad, "I Miss You Like Crazy," picks up where their debut single, "Looking for Love," left off, exploring the loneliness of missing someone close to one's heart. The single is available on iTunes.

Frank Thomas, best known for his 15-plus seasons with the Chicago White Sox and multiple All-Star appearances, launched W2W Records in 2005 but just recently assumed full-time creative control after his February 10th retirement from baseball earlier this year. BelleVoxx's upcoming, debut album will be W2W's first release with Thomas as CEO and is a project that he's shepherded from the very beginning.
